

Fine Showing Is Made By The Schools In Sale of War Stamps

The schools of El Paso are making the second count in the sale of war savings stamps, which commences March 25 and will close May 1, a heated one for the second large flag which will be awarded the school making the largest sale of stamps. With the efforts which are being put forth by the pupils, the figures promise to go far beyond those given in a report up to March 1, made public Wednesday by the War Relocation Authority to the campaign committee. Vinas leads the sale schools in the showing.

Supt. R. J. Tighe, county supervisor of schools Miss Mary Winkler, El Paso City Schools, and El Paso City School Board, have issued a call for all teachers of the county to assemble Saturday at 8 a. m. at the El Paso Public Schools. Instructions will be given for the school work to selling the war stamps. In New York it is reported that the schools are open the entire day selling the stamps, report said.

El Paso's standing of 311 Public Schools follows:
